

Use cases

UC5 Create thread

Main scenario

1. Starts when a logged in user wants to create a new thread.
2. System asks for title.
3. User provides title.
4. System creates thread and redirects user back to previous page where the new thread now exists.

Alternate scenarios

- 4a. Thread could not be created.
    - i. System presents an error message.
    - ii. Step 2 in main scenario.
-

UC6 Delete thread

Preconditions

User has at least one created thread. Ex. UC5.

Main scenario

1. Starts when creator of the thread or admin wants to delete the thread.
  2. System presents a delete thread button next to the thread.
  3. User presses button.
  4. System redirects back to same page, thread is gone.
-

UC7 Create post

Preconditions

There is at least one created thread and user is logged in. Ex. UC5.

Main scenario

1. Starts when a user wants to post on one of the existing threads.
2. System asks for text.
3. User provides text.
4. System creates post and redirects user back to the thread where the post now exists.

Alternate scenarios

- 4a. Post count not be created.
    - i. System presents an error message.
    - ii. Step 2 in main scenario.
-

UC8 Delete post

Preconditions

User wants to delete one of their posts. Ex. UC7.

Main scenario

1. Starts when the creator of the post, the creator of thread or admin wants to delete a post.
  2. System presents a delete post button next to the post.
  3. User presses button.
  4. System redirects back to the same page, post is gone.
-